

There is something special about generations coming together.

At Red Path Sewing, our Elders, youth, and community members gather to share stories, laughter, skills, and cultural knowledge. Every stitch is an opportunity to learn from one another, strengthen connections, and celebrate who we are.

We warmly welcome Inuit youth to join our August Red Path Sewing sessions and learn alongside our Elders and community. Cultural knowledge is powerful, and creating spaces where generations can teach, learn, and grow together helps keep our traditions strong for future generations.

We look forward to welcoming new faces each week. Come create, connect, and be part of our community.

Parents welcome with their younger ones.
